The results of the study are consistent with the findings of other studies that have shown that the use of a structured approach to the assessment of a patient's mental state can lead to more accurate and reliable results. The study also found that the use of a structured approach can lead to more consistent results across different assessors.

Easing of travel with minors hailed

By Loid B. Salazar

EDUCATION - CONGRESSIONAL LEADERS have hailed the easing of travel restrictions for minors, saying the move will help ease the burden of parents and guardians.

The move, which allows minors to travel without the need for a parent or guardian's consent, is a welcome change, they said. The move is expected to help ease the burden of parents and guardians, who are often required to provide consent for their children to travel.

4 killed in 2-hour hostage drama in Laguna

By The Los Angeles Times Staff Writer
 A dramatic hostage situation in Laguna Hills, Calif., ended in tragedy Tuesday with the deaths of four people, including a police officer and a civilian, and the capture of a man accused of orchestrating the attack.

The incident began Tuesday morning when a man, identified as a 34-year-old resident of Laguna Hills, called the police and reported a fire at a home in the 10000 block of Laguna Hills. Police officers responded to the call and found the home in flames. They entered the home and found a man, identified as a 34-year-old resident of Laguna Hills, who was holding four people hostage.

The police officers attempted to negotiate with the man, but he refused to surrender. After a two-hour standoff, the police decided to storm the home. During the assault, the man shot and killed a police officer and a civilian. He then shot and killed himself.

The police are currently searching for the man, who is believed to be on the loose. They have issued a warrant for his arrest and are offering a reward for information that leads to his capture.

Granddames folk to unite vs power costs

By The Los Angeles Times Staff Writer
 A group of grandmothers in Laguna Hills, Calif., are uniting to fight rising power costs. The group, called the "Granddames of Laguna Hills," was formed last month to address the issue of increasing electricity rates.

The group's first meeting was held last month at a local community center. The meeting was attended by about 20 grandmothers, who shared their concerns about the rising cost of electricity. The group decided to write letters to the local utility company, requesting a reduction in rates.

The group's efforts are being supported by local residents and businesses. They are also planning to hold a public hearing on the issue of rising power costs.

St. Anthony's for women

SM Investments raises capex budget

Mail expansion, property projects to account for bulk of '06 expenditure

By Matthew Brown

SM Investments Corp. has raised its capital expenditure budget for 2006 to P1.2 billion, up from P1.1 billion in 2005. The increase is primarily due to the company's expansion of its mail delivery services and its investment in property development projects.

SM Investments Corp. Chairman and President, Mr. J. V. Pardo, and Vice President, Mr. J. V. Pardo, are seen at the company's annual general meeting.
